ORDER

ALVIN K. HELLERSTEIN, U.S.D.J.:

A status conference having been held on October 3, 2002, in the above-captioned actions,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. Every plaintiff who has filed a Summons and Complaint in this Court in the above-referenced cases seeking damages arising out of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks shall forthwith serve the Summons and Complaint upon each defendant named in the pleadings and file proof of service with the Clerk of the Court.
2. On or before December 3, 2002, the Plaintiffs' Executive Committee shall file and serve one or more "Master Complaints" for the above-referenced actions upon all defendants named in said actions and said Master Complaint shall embrace all causes of action asserted by the plaintiffs in their individual Complaints on or before February 3, 2003.

3. Subject to the further order of this Court, the time for defendants in the above-referenced actions to answer or move with respect to the individual Complaints served upon them is extended to January 31, 2003. This extension is intended to allow any plaintiff in the above-referenced actions to voluntarily dismiss such action and to seek an award from the September 11, 2001 Victim Compensation Fund administered by Special Master Kenneth R. Feinberg.

4. All counsel are advised that the Court has established a website at www.nysd.uscourts.gov/Sept11Litigation.htm which includes this Court's Rules of Practice and orders relating to the September 11, 2001 Tort Litigation.

5. Liaison Counsel shall provide this Court with an updated master list of Plaintiffs' and Defendants' counsel in the above-referenced actions with contact information in electronic form. Plaintiffs' Liaison Counsel shall serve all orders issued by the Court upon all plaintiffs' counsel and Defendants' Liaison Counsel shall serve all orders issued by the Court upon all defendants' counsel.

6. All defendants shall provide a copy of any complaints served upon them in the above-referenced actions to Defense Liaison Counsel. Defense Liaison Counsel shall forward a copy of the complaints in each such action to Plaintiffs' Liaison Counsel and the transmittal correspondence shall include the mailing address, e-mail address and facsimile telephone number of plaintiff and defense counsel in such action.

SO ORDERED.
