[A date not later than exceed 120 days after the date of the scheduled initial pretrial conference, unless the Court finds that the case presents unique complexities or other exceptional circumstances.] Requests to extend the time to complete fact discovery must be made at least than 2 business days before this date. 8. Expert Discovery
- a. The parties agree that there [is _____ / is not _____] need for expert discovery. [If the parties agree that there is no expert discovery, they need not fill out the rest of paragraph 8.]
 - b. All expert discovery, including reports, production of underlying documents, and depositions, shall be completed no later than _____. [Absent exceptional circumstances, a date forty-five (45) days from the date in paragraph 7(a) (i.e., the completion of all fact discovery).]

10. In the case of discovery disputes, parties should follow Local Civil Rule 37.2 and the Court's Individual Rules and Practices in Civil Cases. Any party wishing to raise a discovery dispute with the Court must first confer in good faith with the opposing party, in person or by telephone, in an effort to resolve the dispute. If this meet-and-confer process does not resolve the dispute, the party shall promptly file a letter motion, no longer than four single-spaced pages, explaining the nature of the dispute and requesting an informal conference. Any letter motion seeking relief must include a representation that the meet-and-confer process occurred and was unsuccessful. Any opposition to a letter motion seeking relief shall be filed as a letter, not to exceed four pages single-spaced, within three business days. Counsel should be prepared to discuss with the Court the matters raised by such letters, as the Court will seek to resolve discovery disputes quickly, by order, by conference, or by telephone. Counsel should seek relief in accordance with these procedures in a timely fashion; if a party waits until near the close of discovery to raise an issue that could have been raised earlier, the party is unlikely to be granted the relief that it seeks, let alone more time for discovery.

14. The use of any alternative dispute resolution mechanism does not stay or modify any date in this Order.
15. Post-discovery deadlines, including motions for summary judgment and pretrial motions, shall be governed by the Court's Individual Rules and Practices in Civil Cases.
16. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, within thirty (30) days of the close of all discovery, or, if a dispositive motion has been filed, within thirty (30) days of a decision on such motion, the parties shall submit to the Court for its approval a Joint Pretrial Order prepared in accordance with the Court's Individual Rules and Practices and Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3). The parties shall also follow paragraph 5 of the Court's Individual Rules and Practices for Civil Cases, which identifies submissions that must be made at or before the time of the Joint Pretrial Order, including any motions in limine.

18. This case [is _____ / is not _____] to be tried to a jury.
