Positions: Judge Lehrburger hires law students as interns part-time during the school year for fall, winter and spring, and full-time for the summer. Interns have the opportunity to engage in substantive projects and activities, including assisting with judicial opinions; conducting legal research; and observing oral arguments, trials, criminal proceedings and settlement conferences. Interns will work closely with Judge Lehrburger and his Law Clerks.

Qualifications: Applicants should be bright, energetic, in good standing at their law school, and must have excellent analytical and writing skills.

Applications: Applications may be submitted by mail or e-mail to the above address. Applications should include at least the following: cover letter, resume, law-school transcript, and a writing sample (with a note indicating the extent to which the work has been edited by others). Applicants who apply prior to receiving their first-semester grades should supplement their applications once those grades have been released. Applications may be submitted at any time and will be considered on a rolling basis.
