

CHAMBERS RULES FOR SEPTEMBER 11 CONSOLIDATED CASES

Counsel are referred to Judge Hellerstein's Individual Rules. Judge Hellerstein's Rules apply to the September 11 Consolidated Cases except to the extent altered or supplemented by the following rules.

1. Counsel Communication with the Court
  - A. Telephone Communication. Except for good cause, only Liaison Counsel may contact Chambers by telephone.
  - B. Facsimile Communication.
    - i. Written communications of six (6) pages or fewer may be faxed at any time without permission. No hard copy should be sent if a copy is sent by facsimile.
    - ii. Written communications of six (6) to twenty (20) pages may be faxed, without permission, only after hours: after 5:30 P.M through 8:30 A.M. the following morning. During office hours, between 8:30 A.M. and 5:30 P.M., permission to fax 6- to 20-page documents is necessary. No hard copy should be sent if a copy is sent by facsimile.
    - iii. Written communications of twenty-one (21) pages or more may only be faxed with permission. Permission is likely to be granted only in urgent circumstances. No hard copy should be sent if permission is given to fax the document.
  - C. Hand Deliveries. Permission for all hand deliveries to chambers remains necessary.
  - D. Courtesy Copies.
    - i. Courtesy copies of all documents filed with the Court should be forwarded in hard copy by mail to Chambers.
    - ii. A courtesy list of all newly-filed actions is requested, and should be sent by facsimile.
  - E. Docketing. Docket numbers must appear on all submissions to the Court. Thus far, the September 11 cases have been consolidated under the following master docket numbers:
    - i. In re September 11 Litigation, 21 MC 97 (AKH). Claims brought by passengers and ground victims of the September 11 attacks.

- ii. In re September 11 Litigation, 21 MC 101 (AKH). Claims brought by property owners whose property was damaged as a result of the September 11 attacks.
